Make them laugh and they will learn! Barbara provides entertaining programs with take-home content to build your success. She has worked with organizations such as Northwestern Mutual, SBC Global Network and Miller Brewing to develop leadership skills, increase teamwork and enhance customer loyalty.

An entrepreneur, Barbara has owned and operated two corporations, one that now trades on the New York Stock Exchange. A registered nurse, with a master's degree in physical and mental health, she previously was Vice President of St. Mary's Hospital.

Barbara motivates and inspires audiences across the U.S., and frequently appears on national television. She is Past President of the National Speaker's Association-WI Chapter and makes frequent appearances on radio and TV. A stand up comedy enthusiast, she has appeared at "The Comedy Club," a five-star comedy café.

Barbara is the author of the column, The People Pro® which appears widely in professional periodicals including The Business Journal and Corporate Logo Magazine. Several of Barb's articles are featured in the Chicken Soup for the Soul series. Her book, Why Did I Marry You Anyway? 12.5 Strategies for a Happy Marriage, received a five-star rating on Amazon and is a best seller.
